STAFF POLICIES

Overview

Terminology Used in This Manual (“Terminology”)

Applies to: Everyone

Last Updated: <Launch Date>

POLICY

When you sign-off on Staff Policies, you’re essentially signing an agreement acknowledging that you’ve read and understand the policies included in the Staff Policies section of the Manual, and that you agree to adhere to them. So, it’s important you understand the terminology used in this Manual.

It’s also the Company’s intention to be compliant with Ontario and Canadian law throughout this Manual. In the event that something in the Manual conflicts with federal or provincial laws, those laws will govern.

This Manual uses certain terms that have specific formal meanings. All formal terms are capitalized when used throughout the Manual.

Frequently Used Terms

Rather than defining a formal term each time it’s used in this Manual, they are defined in a separate section at the end of this document called Terms & Definition.

Infrequently Used Terms

Some terms only apply to specific topics. In those cases, the definition is included in the Definitions section under that topic.

Conditions of Your Employment or Engagement

All Staff Policies are important. However, it's particularly important that you understand the policies in this section because its principles are referenced throughout the Handbook.

No Expectation to Workplace Privacy

Applies to: Everyone

Last Updated: <Launch Date>

BIG PICTURE

Assume that everything we do while in the Workplace, and everything we store or access using Company Materials, Technology Tools, or Electronic Communications, is up for scrutiny.

POLICY

Here's what you need to know:

- ◆ The Company reserves the right to read, verify, inspect, audit, or monitor anything you do in the Workplace.
- ◆ Inspections may be conducted at any time, with or without notice, to monitor performance, conduct, and Workplace safety and security.
- ◆ Log in accounts, Company Materials, Electronic Communication tools, or other equipment belonging to the Company and supplied for the purposes of your work are not to be considered private as there may be times when another Staff Member is required, for business purposes, to access these materials in your absence.

This Policy is not intended as a punitive measure. It's in place to protect you, your co-workers, your belongings, and the Company's business interests. It's also designed to protect us all against potential liability.

When You Leave the Company

Applies to: Everyone

Last Updated: <Launch Date>

BIG PICTURE

This is what we agree to when we leave the Company.

POLICY

When your Engagement is terminated for any reason:

- ◆ Upon the Company's request to do so, you will promptly return all Company Materials in good order, whether prepared by you or others.
- ◆ You agree to re-acknowledge, by way of signed agreement before or upon your last day of your Engagement, your understanding and agreement with the provisions included in the following Policies that survive and continue after termination of your Engagement for any reason:
  - Confidentiality Agreement
  - Non-Competition, Non-Solicitation, & Non-Disparagement Agreement
  - Intellectual Property
  - Insider Trading
  - INSERT: Any additional policies that are specific to your business or industry that you have included in this Handbook

Conduct Expectations

Not every situation you'll encounter is covered in our Conduct Expectations policies; some situations are black and white while others may have shades of grey. You're entrusted to use good judgment in your day-to-day activities, and to seek further information or assistance when you need it.

If you spend even a fraction of a second questioning the appropriateness of your actions, carefully reconsider the action, proceed with caution, or back away until you have considered and understand all possible consequences.

Code of Conduct

Applies to: Everyone

Last Updated: <Launch Date>

BIG PICTURE

Ethical and appropriate conduct is expected in life, and in the Workplace. Misconduct won't be tolerated.

POLICY

Everyone is expected to conduct themselves in an ethical and appropriate manner. We strive to protect the Company and Staff from inappropriate, damaging or illegal actions committed either knowingly or unknowingly.

The Company will not tolerate Misconduct and will immediately take appropriate corrective or disciplinary actions when Misconduct occurs, up to and including immediate termination of your Engagement with Just Cause.

Here's what you're expected to adhere to:

- ◆ Conduct yourself in an ethical and appropriate manner.
- ◆ Understand and adhere to Staff Policies.
- ◆ Understand and adhere to your individual responsibilities outlined in the Health & Safety policy.
- ◆ Don't engage in Misconduct.

Off-Duty Conduct

Applies to: Everyone

Last Updated: <Launch Date>

BIG PICTURE

Just because we've left the Workplace doesn't mean we can do or say anything we want without consequences.

POLICY

Off-Duty Misconduct will not be tolerated. You'll be disciplined, up to and including immediate termination of your Engagement with Just Cause for engaging in Off-Duty Misconduct.

The Company has a right to maintain its brand and reputation and Staff have a right to work in a comfortable environment free of inappropriate conduct and statements by co-workers, including threatening or harassing behaviour.

Do these rights apply to your conduct or actions that occur outside of the Workplace? Yes. It makes no difference how these rights are violated, or if it happens during working hours or off-duty. Once Misconduct occurs, particularly if it's in the public domain, Staff may lose trust and respect for you and may even refuse to work with you.

You don't have to like your co-workers or agree with the Company or with everything in the Workplace, but you do need to be respectful, ethical, lawful, and professional when off-duty.

Personal Activities in the Workplace

Applies to: Employees

BIG PICTURE

We probably don't always realize how much time we spend on Personal Activities, distractions, and interruptions in the Workplace and we're asked to be mindful about it and make sure that the sum of our Personal Activities doesn't exceed EXAMPLE: 30 minutes a day.

READ IN CONJUNCTION WITH

Personal Activities in the Workplace must adhere to all policies included in the Staff Policies section of the Handbook, but are particularly closely related to the Use of Technology Tools & Electronic Communication policy.

POLICY

It may be unrealistic to expect us not to attend to personal matters or engage in Personal Activities in the Workplace. However, decreased productivity as a result of distractions and Personal Activities has become a significant issue for businesses in general, and its effects escalate each year.

The purpose of this Policy is to clearly define “appropriate levels” of Personal Activities in the Workplace as no more than EXAMPLE: 30 minutes per day during the days you’re working a regular full day, or EXAMPLE: 8 hours. Daily periods permitted for Personal Activities in the Workplace are pro-rated for part-time Employees or partial work days.

Here’s what you need to adhere to:

- ◆ EXAMPLE: 30 minutes of Personal Activities expires at the end of each work day and can’t be accumulated, banked, or carried over. In other words, the EXAMPLE: 30 minutes begins at the start of your work day and ends at the end of your work day. For example, if you don’t engage in Personal Activities on Monday, your Monday EXAMPLE: 30 minutes doesn’t accumulate or get added to Tuesday’s EXAMPLE: 30 minutes or to any future period.
- ◆ While it may be difficult to determine how much time each of us spends on Personal Activities in the Workplace, it’s your responsibility to ensure that such activities don’t exceed EXAMPLE: 30 minutes per day, and that your job responsibilities and deadlines are met.
- ◆ Personal Activities in the Workplace can’t:
  - Interfere with normal business operations or your productivity and ability to meet deadlines.
  - Result in additional expenses for the Company.
  - Be considered an entitlement. Think of it as an insurance, one that’s available to you if you need it.

Requests for Accommodation

In accordance with Ontario Human Rights Code, the Company will consider any reasonable requests for accommodation of an activity that may be deemed a ‘personal activity’ under this Policy.

In Good Faith

The Company believes that this Policy is generous, progressive, and demonstrates flexibility. It essentially provides a significant extra paid benefit to full-time regular employees that can be calculated as 6% (30 min / 8 hour day) of your wages.

Repeated abuse or violation of Personal Activities in the Workplace will be addressed and will result in disciplinary measures.

Solicitation on Company Premises

Applies to: Everyone

BIG PICTURE

We don't ever really know someone else's financial situation or beliefs, and solicitation or distribution of literature can be uncomfortable for some of us. Therefore, solicitation or distribution of literature of any kind in the Workplace isn't permitted.

POLICY

Non-Company Individuals or Outside Vendors

Non-Company individuals are not allowed at any time to enter Company premises for the purpose of any form of solicitation or literature distribution. Third parties or strangers are forbidden from soliciting, selling, or handing out materials for political, charitable, or similar activities. The only exceptions to this prohibition are community benefit projects that are specifically authorized by the Company, and approved business-related vendor or Company events.

Staff

Staff are not permitted to distribute literature or other materials or to solicit for any cause in the Workplace.

Intoxication at Company Events

Applies to: Everyone

Last Updated: <Launch Date>

BIG PICTURE

Intoxication can be distasteful, embarrassing, and dangerous. It's best to avoid it at Company events.

READ IN CONJUNCTION WITH

- ◆ Impairment- Free Workplace

POLICY

Many of us may believe that a Company party or social event is merely an opportunity to have fun and relax, and no different than a gathering with friends and family. However, a Company party or social event is essentially a casual business event. Being Intoxicated is inexcusable and dangerous for your physical well-being and the well-being of others — particularly when driving.

Intoxication can also result in embarrassing and inappropriate situations with event attendees. Consider up front that your behaviour will likely be observed by everyone — your direct reports, peers, <Senior Management Team> — and their spouses.

Take responsibility for your own consumption of Legal Substances and moderate your intake. Avoid the potential for unsafe outcomes and a depreciation of your reputation that can stem from Intoxication and inappropriate behaviour at Company events.

Terms of Understanding

Staff and when applicable, their guests, are invited to Company events where Legal Substances are served or are permitted on the condition that you will:

- Take responsibility for your own consumption of Legal Substances and that of your guest.
- Moderate your intake of Legal Substances.
- Co-operate with the Company's efforts to ensure your safety.
- Not return to work while under the influence of a Legal Substance after a Company event.
- Assist the Company to apply this Policy to other Staff and guests.
- Not operate a vehicle after a Company event while you're impaired.

- ◆ Birth mothers who took Pregnancy Leave are entitled to up to 35 weeks' Parental Leave. Birth mothers who don't take Pregnancy Leave and all other new parents are entitled to up to 37 weeks' Parental Leave.
- ◆ Parental Leave is not part of Pregnancy Leave and so a birth mother may take both Pregnancy and Parental Leave.

- ◆ The right to a Parental Leave is also independent of the right to Pregnancy Leave. For example, a spouse could be on Parental Leave at the same time the birth mother is on either a Pregnancy Leave or Parental Leave.

Ontario's ESA & the Federal Employment Insurance Act

The Employment Standards Act, 2000 (ESA) provides eligible employees who are pregnant or are new parents with the right to take unpaid time off work.

In contrast, the federal Employment Insurance Act provides eligible employees with maternity and/or parental benefits that may be payable during the period they're off on an ESA Pregnancy or Parental Leave.

The rules governing the right to take time off work for Pregnancy and Parental Leave under the ESA are different from the rules regarding the payment of maternity and parental benefits under the federal Employment Insurance Act. For example, a new father may choose to begin a Parental Leave under the ESA up to 52 weeks after the child is born. However, there may be restrictions on accessing the employment insurance parental benefits at that time.

It is extremely important that you and your spouse obtain information about your rights to Employment Insurance (EI) benefits for your particular situation if you're considering taking a Pregnancy or Parental Leave under the ESA. Refer to the Resources section at the end of this Policy for additional information and contact details.

PROCEDURE

- ◆ You must request Pregnancy or Parental Leave from your Manager in writing with any appropriate documentation at least 2 weeks before the anticipated start date of the Leave to help the Company and your co-workers prepare for your absence.
- ◆ The Company reserves the right to ask you to provide a doctor's certificate or other evidence to support entitlement to an early Pregnancy Leave or an extension of Pregnancy Leave for medical reasons.
- ◆ You're expected to provide <HR Manager> with minimum 4 weeks notice in writing regarding your expected date of return to work or your resignation, if you choose not to return to work.
- ◆ If you require the use of sick leave benefits before your Pregnancy Leave begins, the INSERT: Name of Sick Pay Policy guidelines will apply.
- ◆ Once your Pregnancy or your Parental Leave have concluded, you can use your vacation benefits to top up your leave.
- ◆ If you require a leave extension once your Pregnancy Leave has concluded, you can use Family Medical Leave benefits to a maximum of 8 weeks. This leave extension requires as much advance notice as possible, as well as medical documentation.

- ◆ Refer to the Vacation policy to understand how vacation is calculated during Pregnancy or Parental Leave.
- ◆ Also refer to the Continuing Benefits & Seniority While on Leave policy.

Other Employee Leaves & Closures

Unscheduled Office Closures

Applies to: Employees

BIG PICTURE

The weather is crazy, the roads are disastrous, and the schools have been closed. Do we go to work? Who's going to look after the kids? Is anyone going into the office today? Do we fight our way in, only to find the Company is sending everyone home?

This Policy answers these questions.

POLICY

Occasionally, adverse weather conditions, fire, power failures, or other emergencies may make it difficult or impossible for you to get to the Workplace. To avoid confusion about possible office closures due to inclement weather or other similar events, we'll communicate official office closures or status changes to you via Company voice mail and/or email.

Temporary official office closures won't affect your pay or vacation balances. However, in the event that an office closure exceeds EXAMPLE: 5 working days, the Company reserves the right not to compensate beyond those EXAMPLE: 5 days.

If the office remains open for business, you're expected to make every effort to come to work.

PROCEDURE

If you're late, leave work early, or choose not to come into work:

1. Get in touch with your Manager as soon as possible.
2. Record the absence as one of the following:
  - Vacation
  - INSERT: Any other paid Leaves that may cover unscheduled office closures, such as SPS leave or IIPT Leave
  - Unpaid Time Off
3. If you're able to work productively from home, discuss this option with your Manager.

4. Refer to Approving, Communicating, and Recording Absences policy for absence procedures.

Topic Owner: <HR Services>

BIG PICTURE

Under certain circumstances, we may be eligible for unpaid time off to pursue once-in-a-lifetime opportunities.

POLICY

Situations may arise in your life when you have a personal reason for wanting to take some extended unpaid time off. The Company may or may not grant this extended time off, depending on workload and project commitments.

This type of extended absence isn't encouraged as it can be disruptive to the operations of the business.

Legitimate reasons for requesting a leave of absence include:

- ◆ Self-development
- ◆ Extended vacation (once-in-a-lifetime opportunities)
- ◆ Undue hardship for the employee or other compassionate reasons

Here's what else you need to know:

- ◆ The Leave can't exceed EXAMPLE: 30 days.
- ◆ During the Leave, all paid leave benefits, such as vacation, stop accruing.
- ◆ During the Leave, you're responsible for payment of deductions or premiums typically deducted from your pay cheque.

PROCEDURE

If you want to request an unpaid Personal Leave of Absence:

1. Submit the request to your Manager in writing or email, indicating the length of time you want off, the start and end dates of your Leave, and the reason for the request.
2. Your Manager will review the request and take into account your team resources and requirements, obtain final approval from EXAMPLE: the appropriate Senior Manager, and advise you of the decision in a timely manner.
3. If the Leave is granted, refer to Approving, Communicating, and Recording Absences policy for absence procedures.

There may be times when flexibility in the hours we work can help promote work/life balance.

GUIDELINES

You're expected to work a Standard Work Week, but there may be opportunities for flexibility for certain positions to set your own working hours to help promote productivity, creativity, work/life balance, and reduce the environmental impact and amount of time spent commuting to and from work.

Eligibility

- ◆ You're a Regular Full-time Employee who has successfully completed your probationary period. Part-Time or Temporary Employees are not eligible.
- ◆ Your performance was last rated as INSERT. Appropriate performance rating, EXAMPLE: the highest level rating available. Flexible work schedules are not an entitlement, but rather provided to high performers as a perk or reward.

- ◆ Your position doesn't require close supervision, direction, or guidance.
- ◆ You haven't been subject to any disciplinary measures in the last 12 months.

Flextime

Flextime, or flexible working hours provides you with flexibility to set the start and end times of your work day. Outside of Core Hours, you may schedule your working hours in whatever way best suits you, your Manager and your workload.

Compressed Work Week

A compressed work week provides you with the flexibility to work EXAMPLE: 10 hours a day, 4 days a week.

GUIDELINES

- ◆ Flexible work schedules (FWS) are temporary agreements and the Company reserves the right to return your FWS to your standard work schedule at any time in the event that:
  - FWS negatively affects your workload, productivity, quality or that of co-workers
  - FWS creates delays or additional work or steps in the work flow.
  - Company circumstances or operational needs change such that a return to a standard schedule is required.
- ◆ A 30-minute unpaid meal break is required every 5 hours in Ontario.
- ◆ Once you and your Manager have agreed on your FWS, you're expected to stick to that new schedule so your co-workers can predict your availability.
- ◆ You must be at work during Core Hours unless your Manager determines that different Core Hours are more conducive to the FWS.

PROCEDURE

If you're eligible and want to participate in a FWS:

1. Submit a written application to your Manager for assessment that includes the following:
  - Your FWS preferred start date
  - A logical and feasible rationale for the request

2. Your Manager will review the following considerations as they apply to you:
  - Staffing patterns, coverage, service hours

  - Providing regular status and workload updates
  - Access to building (during alternate hours)

  - Establishing core work hours onsite — if different than Company Core Hours
  - Establishing a standing meeting day
  - Limiting FWS to one or two days per week
  - Availability to come to work on short notice
  - Willingness and preparedness to work on a regularly-scheduled day off
  - Suspending flexible work schedules during busiest times of the year
3. In the event that more employees request FWS than a department can reasonably manage, your Manager will respond to requests that are consistent with the Guidelines and Procedures in this Policy and in ways that are equitable to Staff and in the best interest of the Company. This may include rotating turns or staggering schedules.
4. A pilot period will be defined.
5. The request will be reviewed by <HR Services> and must be approved by INSERT: Title, not name
6. Once approved, <HR Services> will create a written agreement that will be signed by you and the Company.
7. Your Manager will communicate your FWS to relevant stakeholders and ensure they understand how it works and how it may affect them.
8. Your Manager will monitor your performance and the effectiveness of the FWS during the defined pilot period.
9. Your Manager will review and reconsider the FWS regularly.

Employee Development, Performance, & Exit

Probationary Period

Applies to: Employees

Last Updated: <Launch Date>

BIG PICTURE

The probationary period is like a trial working period that allows the Company and anyone in a new position to mutually evaluate each other and confirm that there's a good fit.

POLICY

A probationary period is used for new hires and existing employees who have been transferred or promoted into new position. It provides a reasonable timeframe and opportunity for Managers to assess whether there's a good fit between an employee and their new job. At the same time, it allows a new hire the opportunity to evaluate the job and workplace to determine suitability.

Here's what you need to know:

- ◆ The terms of your probationary period are outlined in your employment agreement.
- ◆ The probationary period includes orientation and training activities and more frequent than usual performance check-ins. Both you and your Manager must devote special attention and effort to make sure that job standards are communicated, the duties of the position are learned, and you're meeting the expectations of the job.
- ◆ Under certain circumstances, the probationary period may be extended. There must be a valid reason for the extension and the extension must be in writing.
- ◆ Upon satisfactory completion of the probationary period, if the probationary period is extended, or your probationary period is longer than 90 days, you'll be eligible for any benefits that begin after a 90-day waiting period.

ABOUT THE COMPANY

About Us

Definition of Business Success

INSERT: Your definition of business success here. Below is an example.

It is said that success occurs “where preparation and opportunity meet.” But how do we define and measure success in the Company?

We understand the importance of knowing the key things that can tell us when we’ve reached our goals. We call these our key success factors — the indicators or milestones that measure our business achievements and help determine how well we’re progressing towards our goals and objectives.

The following are straightforward measures that anyone can use as a gauge of individual, team, or Company success. When we ask ourselves if we’ve done the following, let’s push ourselves to make sure the answer is “YES!”

- ◆ Sell each unit at a profit.

At the end of the day, we’re not just a Company, but a business — and we’re in business to make a profit.

We evaluate our products and services and determine if we’re realizing a profit. If not, we need to make adjustments by reducing our costs or increasing prices.

- ◆ Maintain our reputation for people programs that work.

We’re known for our culture and for attracting and retaining quality people. Our people programs are so successful that our internal surveys consistently show an overall rating of 8 out of 10 or above. Our turnover rate is less than half the industry average. We’re sought after to disclose or make presentations about our people programs.

- ◆ Be fiscally responsible.

Lower overhead must be a continuing objective for our business. We can cut costs in many ways, for example, by re-evaluating our insurance needs, reducing reliance on outside Consultants and service providers, or cutting down on unnecessary supplies and equipment.

All individuals treat the Company’s money as if it was their own because they understand that Company success, and their ultimate success, is linked to our sound practices of fiscal responsibility.

We strive to, and individuals are rewarded for, consistently coming in under-budget with all our expenses.

- ◆ Develop quality products and services that add value.

We ensure that our products are not just created in a bubble with an internal team. When developing new products, we seek out sound market data and customer involvement before product development begins.

- ◆ Create and maintain the highest level of customer satisfaction.

A very important success factor needed to sustain our business is to provide the best service to our customers. Satisfied customers are more likely to come back to us and to refer us to others. Better yet, let's give our customers more than they expect.

We regularly ask for customer feedback through surveys or direct interaction to find out how we're doing and what products/services they need and expect from us.

We make use of instant customer service feedback mechanisms, such as a 3-question telephone survey conducted after every telephone contact our customers have with the Company. Individuals who have the highest customer service ratings are rewarded accordingly.

Everyone on our <Senior Management Team> contacts one customer at least once a week to continually understand the needs of the people we're serving.

Service Philosophy

INSERT: Your service philosophy here. Below is an example.

In support of our Vision, Mission, Core Values (see Our Culture), and strategic initiatives, our services and support must consistently exceed expectations.

Our primary measure of success is customer satisfaction. We define customers as employees, partners, and clients.

When representing the Company, our intent is to earn and maintain the respect and trust of everyone with whom we come into contact.

In striving to consistently deliver the best service possible and to treat others as we'd like to be treated, all Company individuals will exert every effort to respect the following fundamental principles of our service philosophy:

- ◆ We put our customers at ease with our comfortable style.
- ◆ We're sensitive to the needs of and modify our approach with each customer depending on their communication style, disability, business acumen, technical skills, culture, etc. We possess a high Emotional Quotient (EQ); we sense the needs of our customers, and how they want to be approached.

- ◆ We don't engage in high-pressure sales tactics. We respect that potential customers make decisions at their own pace. Given the value and price point of our products, if the need is there, the value and price speak for themselves. We aim to ease the potential customer's pain. If our solution won't ease their current pain, we respect that.
- ◆ We're confident and prepared. We know our stuff. If we don't know, we're not afraid to say so. We find out and provide the right answer.
- ◆ While we always strive for 'Customer is King' service, we don't tolerate our Staff being treated with disrespect. While we'll always understand, listen to, and be empathetic to any frustrating situation that a customer may experience with the Company, we won't tolerate obscenities, significant raising of voices, and threatening or personal attacks. We'll calmly let the customer know that we'll speak to them at another time when emotions are not so high.
- ◆ We manage expectations. We believe that customers will be accepting, patient, and more satisfied if they understand what they can expect and when they can expect it. No over-promising. We're factual and reality-based — and we deliver when we say we're going to deliver.
- ◆ Our genuine goal is to provide value and expertise to our customers. Period.
- ◆ We make full and appropriate use of technology so that our customers receive the best service.
- ◆ We're accessible and we respond to customers quickly.
- ◆ Our services are well known for being professional, efficient, and resourceful. We try to exceed our customers' expectation and break the stereotypical reputation some companies have for overcharging and under-delivering. We work with the customer as if their budget was our own, and we help them to make the best decisions possible to ensure quality at an affordable price.
- ◆ We never just say "no"; we provide our customers with explanations and alternate suggestions or solutions.
- ◆ We look for ways to serve our customers outside our particular industry; where a customer would benefit from an introduction we might make, we make it.
- ◆ We look for ways to return the favour of a customer's business.
- ◆ If a customer or potential customer is subject to even the slightest negative experience with the Company, we provide some kind of token of value to attempt to make it right. This could come in the form of a coffee card, a hand written note, or a discount.

Our Culture

Recognizing & Celebrating Employee Personal Milestones

Applies to: Employees

Last Updated: <Launch Date>

BIG PICTURE

Personal Staff milestones occur frequently. The following guidelines answer these questions:

- ◆ What events are recognized or celebrated?
- ◆ Who pays for what and when?

GUIDELINES

We all want a chance to celebrate special events in our team members' lives, such as the birth of a child or a wedding. The same goes for individuals leaving the Company and wanting to wish them the best in their future endeavours.

We often plan a lunch, and/or gathering, and/or gift for those individuals. Unfortunately, some individuals find it uncomfortable to say no to requests for contributions to fund these types of celebrations. And some simply can't afford it.

We ask that Everyone respect the guidelines below relating to gifts, special events, gatherings, and solicitation.

Birthdays

The Company is happy to provide you with a day off with pay to celebrate your birthday. This time off is posted to EXAMPLE: 'Other Paid Time off' on timesheets or exception reporting.

Weddings

The Company will provide a gift of EXAMPLE: $100 to any employee who's getting married. The individual's Manager is responsible for requesting a check or cash from Accounts Payable and presenting it to the individual.

As a rule, the Company doesn't pick up the tab for group events/gatherings to celebrate a marriage. Individual organizers are welcome to plan a celebratory event, but all events/gatherings are organized and paid for by the attendees on their own time.

New Parents

The Company will provide a gift of EXAMPLE: $100 to any employee who becomes a new parent. The individual's Manager is responsible for requesting a check or cash from Accounts Payable and presenting it to the individual.

As a rule, the Company doesn't pick up the tab for group events/gatherings to celebrate upcoming parenthood. Individual organizers are welcome to plan a celebratory event, but all events/gatherings are organized and paid for by the attendees on their own time.

Employees Leaving the Company

The Department Manager will be happy to pick up the tab for a meal or beverages for the departing employee and the team of people who work closest to the departing individual. This gesture is appropriate to thank the departing individual for their contribution to the immediate team.

As a rule, the Company doesn't pay for gifts for the departing individual or the meal or beverage tabs of participants outside of the individual's immediate team. Exceptions may be made for long-tenure employees at the discretion of the <Senior Management Team>.

Solicitation for Gifts

Occasionally, team members want to purchase a gift for individuals for various reasons including extending congratulations or saying goodbye. Solicitation for gifts outside of the individual's immediate team is strongly discouraged. We all need to respect that solicitation may make people uncomfortable, particularly if asked face-to-face.

On the other hand, we recognize that some people outside of the individual's immediate team may want an opportunity to contribute. In this case, an email to Everyone (per guidelines outlined in Effective Email Communication and Etiquette) advising that a collection is being taken for the individual may be appropriate. The email must clearly state that contributions are purely voluntary and should provide the name of a specific person to be contacted for donations or card signing.

Tax Implications

There are clear tax guidelines governing awards of gifts, near-cash gifts and rewards as taxable benefits. The Finance Department has ultimate authority in interpreting and administering the guidelines to adhere to tax regulations and requirements.

All-Hands Meetings

Applies to: Employees

Last Updated: <Launch Date>

Making time for face-to-face communication to talk about Company information that affects all of us is critical to our success. Every 2 months, we provide a forum where our senior Managers provide you with a business update and you are encouraged to ask questions.

Hosting

We also believe that communication comes from within each team, and we ask each department to take a turn organizing, hosting, and making a presentation at the all-hands meeting each year, to showcase their team, projects, and creativity.

A schedule of departmental hosts and presentations is available here INSERT: Hyperlink to your company directory so you don't have to update this Handbook regularly.

What to Expect

EXAMPLE: Six times a year, we all meet in INSERT: Location for an all-hands meeting that lasts about 2 hours. Attendance at these meetings is mandatory, and we expect you to attend. If you're unable to attend, you're asked to notify our CEO before the meeting with a reason why attendance isn't possible.

The following is a rough outline of what you can expect at these meetings:

- ◆ Business/financial update
- ◆ People and people programs update
- ◆ Questions and answers
- ◆ New employee welcome
- ◆ Department-specific presentation

You may submit your questions before the all-hands meeting by emailing INSERT: Individual position - not name.

Lunch & Learns

Applies to: Employees

Last Updated: <Launch Date>

Food for thought... What better way to learn about important topics than combining a meal with topical presentations!

That's what we do with Lunch and Learns. Once a month, we organize noon classrooms where we bring in internal or external subject-matter experts to talk about our business, departments, industry, and other topics of interest to all of us. AND we feed you!

Lunch and Learn topics typically rotate and fall into one of the following categories:

- ◆ Company orientation — A Departmental Manager or team member introduces/clarifies/orients attendees to their particular department and its function within the Company.
- ◆ An external subject-matter expert is brought in to speak about a general topic of interest, such as ‘Wellness,’ or ‘How to manage your money,’ or ‘Why bring the Winter Olympics to my city?’
- ◆ An external subject-matter-expert is brought in to speak about a business-specific topic of interest, such as industry or economic trends or organizational behaviour topics.

A schedule of Lunch and Learn topics and presenters is established at the beginning of the year and is available here INSERT: Hyperlink to your company directory so you don't have to update this Handbook regularly.

You are asked to sign up for Lunch and Learns at least 2 weeks in advance by accepting a meeting request sent via email. Those who sign up will be reminded by email by <HR Services> 1 day before the event.

OUR PRACTICES

Facilities

Our Individual Work Space

Applies to: Everyone

Last Updated: <Launch Date>

BIG PICTURE

We're comfortable in our workspaces while considering the needs and sensitivities of others.

GUIDELINES

When we spend so much time at work, it's natural to want to personalize our workspace and make it comfortable. In fact, it's a great way to learn a little more about each other and who we are as individuals outside of work.

We do, however, have to filter our 'self-expression' at work to avoid cluttering our office space and crossing over the lines of what's acceptable for our culture, co-workers, and visitors. It's fine to play music, put up pictures, bring in plants, and decorate your workspace, but if you clutter our office space, disturb, or offend those working around you, you'll be asked to tone it down.

Pictures, Posters, Artwork

If it's displayed where anyone else can see it, think 'G' rating. Even if it's on your desk where you think only you can see it, someone else may have to look at it while working alongside you. This applies to screen savers, posters, calendars, chalk or dry-erase boards, and any other item you have on your desk.

Foul language, nudity, or violent images are not permitted. You also can't display Confidential Information or proprietary Company information.

Music

If you're alone in the office after hours and you're not disturbing anyone else's concentration or sensibilities you're welcome to play music at your desk. Otherwise, you're asked to wear headphones to listen to music.

Tidiness & Cleanliness

Not everyone likes things neat and tidy — some of us like to see everything at once — but you're responsible for keeping things reasonably clean. No rotting sandwiches or milk containers hidden under paperwork, please! And if you're the type who likes everything in the open, you'll have to pay close attention to displaying Confidential Information.

You may prefer a little chaos in your personal workspace, but we all have to show consideration of others in our use of the common areas. It's very simple — please clean up after yourself!

Pets

Other than service animals, we don't allow pets in the office. Even if your pet is extremely well behaved and doesn't drool or leave its 'mark' in every corner, some people have intense allergies or fears about animals.

Since we don't necessarily know who those people are, we kindly ask that you leave your pets at home.

Babies & Children

Anything that distracts you, or those around you, from doing their job well during office hours is generally discouraged. We'd love to see your new baby and share your excitement, but if Baby's unhappy and screaming for 2 hours while you catch up with office friends, it's probably best that you move your visit to another location where people aren't being disturbed.

On the other hand, letting your children see you at work can be a great experience! Occasional visits are encouraged as long as they aren't keeping you from work or disturbing others.

Speak Up

We foster an environment where we encourage you to speak up and address disturbances directly. If someone's habits or actions disrupt your concentration or work, please address this directly with the individual.

We all have different levels of tolerance for environmental 'noise.' For some, background noise is conducive to enhanced productivity, while others find all unnecessary interruptions a disturbance. We encourage everyone to provide and accept feedback about occasions where work or productivity may be interrupted.

Food for Thought - Introverts

If you're approached about your noise levels, consider that at least one-third of your co-workers were born introverts. That means there's a good chance that they inherently function better in a quieter environment.

Before you roll your eyes and label their request as intolerance, consider that their needs may differ from yours and that a heavy noise footprint may be affecting some of your co-workers. We foster a diverse and inclusive environment — which includes being tolerant of people around us who are wired for quiet.

Other Office Services

Office Supplies

General office supplies are kept in the supply room and are available for Company use only. You may help yourself to the office supplies you need. Please advise <Office Services> if you notice inventory getting low on particular items.

Please note, office supplies are provided for business use only. Here's a story that outlines a common scenario and may be food for thought:

“My son called yesterday as I was leaving the office. He asked if I'd bring home some computer paper from the office as we ran out at home and he was completing a school project. Why not? Who would know? But I hesitated and reflected on the kind of example I was setting for my son. I was essentially agreeing to theft. I then said I'd stop and get some on the way home . . . The paper cost me less than $10.”

The bottom line is that these supplies simply aren't ours to take for personal use. Essentially, this would be classed as theft.
